CAME NEAR BEING A RACE RIOT

An incident that might have terminated in a race riot, occurred at the viaduct on lower Twenty-fourth street yesterday at noon. Between 12 and 1 o'clock the structural and iron workers on the viaduct gathered together to have their pictures taken. The men had stationed themselves upon the trestle work of the viaduct for the photographer to take their picture.

No sooner had the men been placed in the position desired than a couple of Greeks, truckmen at the freight house, climbed to prominent places with the iron workers. An exception was taken to their presence, and they were ordered down. They reluctantly complied with the order, but immediately returned to their desired positions, whereupon the workmen, Americans, became somewhat indignant and unceremoniously removed them.

One of the Greeks, being exasperated over the sudden expulsion, picked up a cobblestone and hurled it into the crowd of Americans assembled upon the huge girders, barely missing the heads of some of the men. The Americans, however, kept their tempers until the act of taking the picture had been completed, when they came down from the scaffolding in a body. That they were enraged goes without saying.

No sooner had they alighted upon the ground than a rough-and-tumble fight ensued between them and the foreigners. There were about four of the Greeks and other foreigners to one of the Americans, but within a very short time the foreign element was on the run, a number of the Greeks getting away with black eyes and swelled heads. One of the Greeks drew a large dirk in a threatening manner, but he was quickly disarmed.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.
